“ Lamar and I were best friends since the first grade and Patti joined us to make it a trio once we got to East Lake Jr Hi. He was always so full of fun and laughter and had a wacky sense of humor. (which made him fit right in with us). One of my memories with him was on a Boy Scout camping trip when we were eleven. It had been raining and we woke up in the middle of the night freezing, so we decided to build a fire. It was dark and our flashlight batteries were dead, so we just grabbed anything we could find to burn and hovered over the smoldering smoke to try to keep warm. Turns out we had thrown poison ivy on the fire. It was a miserable recovery!.We'll truly miss a great guy.

“ Lamar was one of my best friends in high school. He was so kind and funny. I still think of crazy things he said and laugh, all these years later. His friendship will always be a bright spot in my life. Keeping y'all in my thoughts and prayers. -Rosie Smith Whitaker
