“ If someone wants to be part of your life they will make an effort to be in it; that's exactly what Bob did. He walked up to a scared 15 year old, as he walked up the front steps of Niagara Catholic High school for the very first time. The first thing he said to me was, “Don't step on the school insignia.”. He did so much more than just say hello and give me that warning; he made sure I knew my way around the school; what time to be at football practice; how to stay on Sister Nancy's good side, and how to do your best to stay out of detention with Coach Condino. Somehow that last bit of advice didn't seem to sink in. (LOL) I will always cherish the hundreds of hills we skied down together, while of course always chasing a pretty girl. He showed me a world that I didn't know existed pass the country club gates and the fondest memory of all was that magical spring break at Hilton Head that his family was gracious enough to take me along. I have no idea where the 40 years have gone since the last time we got in to some form of trouble. (LOL) I feel great sorrow today, but because of our faith in Jesus Christ we shared many years ago, I know we will see each other again. Bob, my dear friend I will miss you, I know you are rejoicing in the presence of the Lord and no one will ever take that joy away. Jeff Robbins NC 81
