“ My mother, Ruth Luckado, enjoyed Aaron very much. They blew kisses at each other. When I visited Mom at Morning Pointe before the Covid Virus, I always said hello to Aaron. I got him and another resident to come to Mom's room once, and we all sang together. I heard him yodel too. I will really miss him and his charming personality. His remarkable service to our country is also very much appreciated. Much love and peace to his family.
