“ God bless the family. I used to work at the Wal-Mart in Tullahoma, and Mr. Aaron would always ask about my family and what they had cooked me for lunch!! We both have Diabetes and knew that we couldn't have certain foods, especially at work. I am going to miss him!! Family, all are in my prayers!

*To Aaron's Family Members,
Having known Aaron since we were pre-teens, nothing but many positive, lovely thoughts come to mind. He was always a kind, gentle man, and one who was a great friend to many. I was so sad to hear the news of his transition. It will be difficult, but cherish the memories of such a great man. I am glad I knew him and learned from him.*

“ *To the entire family,
Thank you for sharing a great man with the world. From the times watching him preach to crowds and to small gatherings, to see his dedication through tough times, to playing in his back yard on Franklin Street, to listening to his calm, sound advice, he will be truly missed. He's one of those about whom it's said, "They don't make them like that anymore."*
