

Addison Scott Bond

August 29, 1986 - February 20, 2021

Addison Scott Bond of Tullahoma passed this life on Saturday, February 20, 2021 at the age of 34. Funeral services are scheduled on Thursday, February 25 at 11 AM at Daves-Culbertson Funeral Home with burial to follow at Whitworth Cemetery in Christiana. The family will receive friends on Wednesday, February 24, 2021 from 5 – 8 PM at Daves-Culbertson Funeral Home.

A native of Murfreesboro, he was the son of Keven Bond and Judith Morton Burklew. Addison was a member of the Life Change Church in Tullahoma and was a member of the Tullahoma Masonic Lodge. He enjoyed being outdoors, hunting, fishing, riding 4-wheelers, swimming and boating. He also was an avid UT and Tampa Bay football fan and enjoyed traveling and spending time with his family. Addison was an EMT and had been a Volunteer Fireman. He enjoyed working in the healthcare field.

In addition to his parents, Kevin Bond (Donna) of Summerfield, FL and Judith Burklew (Tony) of Murfreesboro, he is survived by wife, Meredith Bond of Tullahoma; daughter, Olivia Grace Bond; grandfather, James Morton of Murfreesboro; brother, Alex Bond (Gretchen) of Melbourne, FL; sister, Lea Tatham of Nashville; in-laws, RD and Kay Glasgow of Estill Springs and brothers-in-law, Ronnie Glasgow of Unionville and Troy Utterbach (Tara) of Tullahoma.

Mr. Bond was preceded in death by grandparents, Leroy and Dorothy Bond and Sylvia Morton and sister, Amy Tatham.

LA

“ I only recently learned of Addison's passing from one our mutual colleagues from our time at Vanderbilt. He was a great man, generous, and instrumental to the training of my career in healthcare. In the places where lives are saved, his name is still spoken by his colleagues as a hero, years later and a thousand miles away. His memory is a blessing, and the people he trained in emergency healthcare still save lives to this day in his name all over the nation.
