“ My late husband, Buck Campbell, was a classmate and friend of Alice's all through school. She was a wonderful friend to everyone, so kind hearted and she genuinely cared about helping others. There was a special place in Heaven just waiting for Alice. Buck and I loved her and we know every one who ever met Alice loved her also. She will be greatly missed.

“ Alice's smile just radiated warmth and love and brought you directly to her in a room! She was a grand lady and a special friend. Alice was a favorite class member of the 1960 THS class and warmly remembered all of us. We love you Alice. Bobby and Louise Warren.

“ Aunt Alice is such a sweet and kind person. I say is because I have no doubt she is in heaven having put her faith in CHRIST JESUS. In times of my deepest despair she reached out to me to comfort me. I will miss her til I see her again. I'll love you always, Bucky.

“ When I think of Alice, I hear her laughing and see her smiling. I always liked to see her when I was at Joan's, and, of course, loved watching Debbie & Ty grow up. So many wonderful years, so many great memories with all of you--we are sorry but blessed to have had time with her.
