“ Amy and I met when I was 14 and she was 12 at Sheldon Rd Baptist Church in Tampa Florida. We quickly became friends and she would spend many weekends at my house. We would dance to the radio and sing along. Fast forward a few years and I got my first car and all bets were off. With the new found freedom we cruised all over the place singing to the radio and just being silly. We stayed friends through highschool and she even went to the prom with me and my date because I was not leaving my bestie out. As time went on we both got married and moved away. But we tried to stay in touch as best as possible. We helped each other grieve the losses of our parents and the joy of our children. It had been a while since we had seen each other in person and we had the opportunity to get together at the beach a couple of years ago. Even though it had been a long time since we were together in person it was like no time had passed. I had my friend back and we enjoyed the time at the beach and talked about everything life has brought our way. But my favorite memory is just the two of us collecting seashells together along the beach at sunset. It was so beautiful and we laughed and squealed every time we found a pretty one. She was so happy and smiling and I will hold that image in my heart forever. She's been such a inspiration to me because she was a very giving loyal person who always put others first. She was a devoted wife and mother and a loving daughter and sister. We're all better for knowing her and are forever changed by having her in our lives.
