November 13, 1930 - October 15, 2024

Obituary for Anna Mae Nail – November 13, 1930 – October 15, 2024

Anna Mae Nail, age 93 of Tullahoma, passed away peacefully Tuesday, October 15, 2024, surrounded by people who loved her. The Memorial Service is being planned for a later date.

A native of Terre Haute, Indiana, she was the daughter of the late George and Esther (Sandberg) Morris. She graduated with her Registered Nursing degree from Hinsdale School of Nursing in Illinois and began her career as a nurse. She was a big support to her husband, Jack Nail (deceased 2015), working for the Seventh-day Adventist Church leading church youth camps throughout many states. She and her husband relocated to the Tullahoma area in 1991 and were longtime members of the Tullahoma Seventh-day Adventist Church.

While helping with summer camps, she was known for her love of Bible study, stargazing, health talks, singing and harmonizing, and bringing her special dose of sunshine to any situation. God gifted her with the ability to brighten any corner of the world He placed her. Once on a rainy canoe trip in Texas, her children will forever remember her “Isn’t this Fun?” encouraging cheers. She loved her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, her family and her church.

Mrs. Nail is survived by her loving sister and supportive brother-in-law,

Delores and Delmar Lovejoy of Manchester; two sons, Ted Nail of Tullahoma and Jonathan Nail of Illinois; two daughters, Jacquelyn Elliott and Lynda Feldmann (Rick), both from Maryland; six grandchildren, Nathan, Jacinda, Christopher, Samantha, Emma, and Andrew and two great grandchildren, Anaya and Lillimae.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations be made to the Tullahoma Pathfinder Club, P.O. Box 1328, Tullahoma, TN 37388.
