“ Yes I remember those chiggers and blueberries and her sweet smile. I had the best time staying at her house. She would let us do just about anything. I will miss her.

“ Aunt Betty you will be missed more than you know. You were always my precious model when I took my state board exams. I will never forget when the administration told us she better see an inch on the floor. I whispered in your ear and said you are about to get a haircut. And if you know my Aunt Betty back then never wanted her hair short. We made it through with a 96 on the exam. We have cleaned my upstairs loft when we moved in the farm house and when I smiled I had dirt all in my teeth and you couldn't stop laughing. Gosh the stories I can tell we could sit for a while. May you RIP and see your precious child again. God has you in his arms now and you will live forevermore. I love you dearly. Your Debbie

“ I remember Betty when she worked at Genesco. We sewed up the sides of mens boots. It was called closing boots. She was a very sweet and friendly person. Our thoughts and prayers for her family!

“ I always enjoyed staying with Aunt Betty and Uncle Marlin when I was little. She had a roll full of beautiful zinnias in her yard and so many butterflies. She took Linda and I blueberry picking one time and we got covered up in chiggers we laughed so much about that. Mark and Linda and me would have so much fun together. Such great memories I will cherish forever. Love you my sweet Aunt Betty.
