“ I got to know Ms. Fowler thru working with the state of TN, and I attended the Academy in Tullahoma. She had a very good heart, she cared deeply for her students. I will truly miss her, she was a great friend to all.

“ My sincerest condolences to all those who knew and loved Beverly. What a privilege to have had her as a student in Human Services classes at Tennessee Wesleyan College. What an amazing, resilient young woman with great heart and the drive to make the world a better place. Although it has been many years since I had connected with Beverly, she is one of those students who was unforgettable. Love and prayers to family and friends. Her memory will live always in my heart.

“ I met Beverly at academy, I can't share the first conversation that we had but if you Beverly you can just imagine. I knew two things for after that, I knew that lady said exactly what she thought without candy coating it, and I knew she was to be a friend. I talked to her a couple of times after she retired and she was talking about her new grandbaby. She will be greatly missed. Our prayers are with her family at this sad time.

“ What can I say about Mrs. Fowler that hasn't already been said. She was a rare find of an incredible woman. Every year I attended the academy, hers was a face I looked forward to seeing walking into a classroom. She previously worked at the group home I was employed and I would shed tears of laughter from her stories of time gone by while she was there. She helped me find strength and belief in myself. I'll will remember her and her tenderness for life always. Fly high sweet dove.

PS

Bev always referred to me as her buddy and would say "stick it to em Paulie." She was my biggest supporter when I arrived at the Academy and even introduced me to our hourly "union" breaks. My heart has been broken and I found myself in tears walking past her office which has been since replaced with other instructors. I am forever glad I was able to call you friend. Rest in piece and see ya again on the other side. - Paul

“ How to help the friends and Family of their loved one understand what impact they had on a close friend. Bev, as I called her for over 20 yrs., was my friend, Sister, and the person I knew I could ALWAYS talk with and know it stayed with her. We seemed to keep sane in a world where saneness was not always present, with long visits to each others Offices. We could vent and fix all the problems that few others seemed to NOT care about in the privacy of those two offices. We laughed and cried about all types of topics. Bev and I could talk about anything except politics which we agreed to stay away from. LOL (Polar opposites) The most caring woman I have ever known. She desperately wanted the world to be a kinder place and I always wanted that for her while knowing it never would be. Well My most DEAR friend, your world is now kinder in it's perfectness and you are surrounded by only grace and beauty, which you so deserved..... God Bless you Bev until we meet again. God's gifts and blessings on all your Family and friends.....
