“ Words do not come easy as I think of my dear and very special friend, Billye. I do know her faith was strong, and her joy in heaven being reunited with her loving partner in life, Conrad, and her son, Paul, and other family members will be wonderful.

I was blessed by her friendship and will never forget our August birthday celebrations together over the years at Blue Gil Grill..with a big burger, cold beer, and lots of laughs. And her Christmas parties at her house, so fun! But the best blessing for me about having Billye as a friend was her wise, caring, sensible "motherly advice" that she gave me during difficult times I was having with my children or grandchildren. And her humor and big, warm hugs and kisses were the medicine for my soul on so many occasions. A beautiful lady, loving mom and grandmother, and the very best of friends. I will miss her dearly, but her love stays with me forever. My love and prayers to Cis, Tesh and all of the family..hold your memories always in your heart, she loved you with all of hers.
