“ I am saddened to just now find out about you going to a better life with Jesus. We had some great times when you would join our family for dinner and hanging out. Your smile would light the room. I will miss running into you while out in town. I know God had a bigger plan for you, but I can't help but I can't help but be sad for you and your babies. I wish I could have met them. You were very proud of them. You are greatly missed.

“ Blake, I haven't seen you or heard from you since high school but you were always such a sweet, caring and wonderfully funny guy to be around. I'm deeply saddened by your loss and by the loss of so many others that were friends and classmates that were taken away from this world too soon. I'm heartbroken for your family and friends and all the people that ever crossed paths with you because now you're gone and although heaven gained another angel, we lost a special part of our heart that can never be replaced. R.I.P. Blake Smith, May God lead you into the light of eternal peace and glory

“ I’ve known Blake his whole life but haven’t seen him in years. After Tommy (my brother) passed away I lost touch with the family. But all of you guys were in my thoughts all these years. The best memory of Blake is when he was a little boy with that snow white hair playing at Granny Opals house. I’ve always loved you guys and always will. ❤️❤️❤️
