“ To the family and friends of Brian,

I am deeply sorry for your loss. He was a good person with a kind heart. He was too young to be taken from this earth.

I first met Brian three years ago when he met Tim and I in Franklin. He came to pick up Timothy for a weekend of fun, Xbox, and cooking. He was full of life and very respectful. I knew my son had chosen a fine friend.

Brian encouraged Timothy to try out new dishes when cooking. He influenced my son to find a passion for cooking that Brian saw was innate in him. Because of Brian's encouragements, Timothy learned to trust his instincts with cooking. Thank you, Brian, for being such an advocate for my son.

I met Brian again when I helped move Timothy to Tullahoma to stay with Brian. I still laugh when I think of chasing after him because he said, "Don't worry, Mrs. Sears, I will take good care of Tim." Okay, that was the sweet part, but he added something about Tim getting a sleeve or two (tattoos). He ran much faster than me, but he knew he needed to. He was sweet with a mischievous side.

Thank you, Brian, for your laughter and your giving spirit. You were a good friend to my son, Timothy.

“ I was blessed to have Brian as a cousin. We grew up basically as siblings. He always was there for me even if it had months since we'd talked. There are so many memories such as when we couldn't wait until Christmas Eve at Grandma Mae's to see who could eat the most plates of food (he always won and never let me forget) In the time he tricked me into thinking that a pond at my grandparents farm was a lake and actually talked me into "swimming" So many laughs, fears, and secrets were shared. I'll never ever forget you Brian 💕

“ I've known Brian since I was 17 years old. I am now 28. He has always been in my closest group of friends and will always remain there. I am a little younger than Brian, so have always found a big brother in him. If he ever saw me walking down the road in Winchester, he would stop immediately and ask if I needed a ride, and where I was going, and if I needed to stop by anywhere else before we got there. Very often, we were going to the same place. I rode along with him to many, many concerts, and played hours of video games with him on a weekly basis. Of all the friends I have ever found in my life, he immediately became one of them within our first meeting. While playing in a heavy metal band in high school, Brian came to every event we held, and most band practices (no matter how bad we sounded). He always greeted me with not a handshake, but a hug. EVERY time I saw him. Each and every time. RIP my dear friend.
