“ My Uncle was much like his father; he was an amazing strong silent type, with a soft middle. He would sit back and observe and would say something when necessary. Butch always got instant respect, he was that kind of guy everyone just instantly took to and respected. He spoke firm with me once out of love. I always respected him for that and certainly never wanted to do anything provoke that again, same way as my Grandfather. I much rather hold out for his arm around me, pulling me close for a squeeze 😊. His soft middle for his family was amazing to watch. Family was his happy place, it was everything to him and it will always be even though we cant see him anymore. I know he will always be watching over his loved ones. I know he will be with us always. Especially his wife; my Aunt Brenda. ❤️ The world has lost an amazing human but Heaven has gained an amazing Angel. My Uncle was truly an amazing man! We were so very blessed!
