“ There are so many memories of Charles Randall from the time we was in a car wreck together that his words saved us, to him buying my first granddaughter her very first Christmas dress which I still have persevered since it is 30 years old. To Christmas 2019 when he brung his children to help us out. He loved to go eat Mexican with his family, His wife and girls was his world, He really enjoyed going deer hunting with his daughters oh and we don't want to forget coon hunting. He would give you the shirt off his back. He was and will always be my Pooh Bear that I will miss for every

“ Being his uncle then I knew Charles Randall since birth. He was known as Charles Randall to his family. In his youth he loved playing baseball and football and played for a few teams. He started work at a young age with his father Kenneth at the tannery in Tullahoma. He had a long career there until he became disabled and unable to work. He never wanted anybody to feel sorry for him or ask for a handout. He was very kind and would find something positive in anything or anyone. I am sure he probably suffered with his health until his death. The suffering is over now. Condolences to Claudia and his wife, kids and grandchildren. Rest In Peace Charles Randall.
