“ It is with great sadness I send my most heartfelt condolences to Pam and Kip and everyone in the family on the loss of a great Christian woman. From the first time I met her it was always MOM. She and POP treated all of us youngsters as if we their own. It made my time in Tullahoma a very memorable and enjoyable time. I have never met till this day anyone as accepting and caring as "MOM and POP STATUM. There will always be a void where their friendship was. This is from "ROW HO" as POP always called me .
