“ Chris was a very wonderful man. He was the best husband to me the love of my life. He was a amazing father to his girls. He loved his friends and family. We got to have 5 wonderful years together. We were perfect together. Im gonna miss his hugs kisses and him telling me how beautiful i was that he was the luckiest man alive cuz i married him. This is so hard and the pain and heartache will never go away. Chris McLaughlin i live you to our halo moon and back forever and always. May you be at peace and no longer hurting. I will see you again so be ready for me.

“ Just the other day Chris said it had been 5 years since he joined our family :) and I couldn't believe it. It didn't even seem like that much time had passed, we first started harassing each other during baseball and football seasons I so wanted to get him to Fenway and take him to Boston as we both loved baseball :) I cheered with him for his Cubbieshowever after many frustrating seasons with the Titans I did manage to sway Chris to the Patriots :) and he cheered with me for The Pats. But while we bonded over sports we grew close over the years and I will miss over many conversations. I will always remember our last conversation and I would have stayed up with you longer just to keep you with us longer <3 Love you and miss you.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Amen.
