“ I worked with him on 2nd shift. He was over the moon when he was able to go to 1st shift and spend time with his family. He always missed them so much! He helped me learn my job without my asking him, made me feel welcomed to my new line. I missed him when he left the shift, and then when I changed plants. I just heard about this and it's gut wrenching. He was sweet and funny, always sharing stories about his family pretty much every day. I wish I could have met them. He'll be forever in my heart, and his family forever in my prayers.

“ My heart has a ginormous hole in it! It is now missing my BEST FRIEND! Cleofas Ryan Trejo is & always will be the LOVE of my life! I remember the 1st night we met like it was yesterday. He was the most handsome man I'd ever seen & his spirit was like the BRIGHTEST shining star!! And oh my that smile of his was breathtaking!!! I couldn't believe he noticed ME! He keep making shuttle hits that he like me, but @ the end of the night he rushed out of the house grabbed my arm gently & turned me around, then he kissed me!!!! I knew then he was my 1 & only! We were madly in love for 17yrs & I was honored to call him my husband for 14 yrs! Through all of the challenges life threw at us he chose to love me through them all & never left my side. Even after the death of our unborn son, which devastated us both, he stayed with me & worried for me. The day he was diagnosed with A.L.S. is now the 2nd worst day of my life. It made me crumble at the thought of knowing 1 day I wouldn't have him in my(our) life. It was the hardest thing either of us had to do. Pretending everything was okay, when we knew the outcome was unspeakably horrendous. This decease at his age & just after we had our beautiful daughter, that he always wanted. It was unbelievable heavy know he would never see any of his children fully grow. I knew it was my turn to show him how much I loved him through something no doctor/person or anything could fix or stop it from happening. I tried my best to make every moment count. I gave him my all & just wish I could still be giving him the LOVE he deserves. He was such a beautiful/astounding person inside & out!!!! He was my world, my everything! He made me whole & there is nothing that can fill this void that is left in my heart. The other half of me is gone. My life is now forever changed. He promised he would fine me again cause our love was so deep & pure. Though we don't know what comes after life I am hopeful cause I know he'll be waiting for me. I can't wait to see his beautiful smile & feel his embrace again! He was a wonderful father to our beautiful children & an AMAZING husband. There are so many wonderful things & stories I will forever hold in my heart. I could spend eternity writing about just how amazing he was & all the times we were blessed to share with each other. CLEOFAS RYAN U

WILL BE MISSED DEARLY & DEEPLY. Now that I have lived through my biggest nightmare of losing my ONE true love. With his life that was taken away so young & to soon. I must remain strong for our babies. Which I is so agonizingly/painfully HARd. I am SO grateful for the time I had with him while he was here, it just hurts so ghastly/egregiously/dismally knowing every time I wake he won't be there. I LOVE U,CLEOFAS RYAN WITH EVERY INCH OF MY BEING!!! Rest in peace my love! May we meet again my love!!!!

“My dear sweet brother (in law), how you will be missed! You always made me laugh. Your smile was infectious. You were wonderful to all the kids. You instilled some wonderful characteristics in Conner & Brandon, I see them now as they have entered adulthood. I recall how you let Bell paint not just your fingernails but your toenails too. Lol Losing you is so bittersweet. You are at peace, NO more pain, but then there is no more you. Forever in my heart, always on my mind and never forgotten. All my love! Love Michelle

PS Give my love & drown in kisses to my nephew Tiny!

“ My big brother Ryan was one of the smartest people I ever met. He was silly and loud and had the most beautiful smile. He was irreplaceable, charismatic, genuine.... I used to love to call and hear him say “what’s cracking? “. There are too many memories to share, but each one is like a secret smile I keep in my heart. Love you forever. 🙌👍

“ I will never forget the positive impact that Cleo had to me, to guide me into a more graceful path of life. No matter his opinion he was always able to lend a listening ear and offer the most wisdom I've ever been met with. He will be truly missed by so many! He's speaking his wisdom above us now ❤️

“ I wish that we had the opportunity to know Cleofas sooner. He was the kind of guy that lit up a room, and you could immediately see and feel all the love that he had to share. The last time we saw him, he insisted on standing up to give us a proper hug! I will never forget that warm spirit. Sending prayers for strength and healing during this difficult time, and also sending lots of love and hugs.
