“ I am so, so sorry to hear about Spike....I had decided to search him to maybe surprise him & my husband with some type of connection. They were on the Guad together, and were pretty close. A few thoughts ~ He was often at our apts in Norfolk....I have a few fun pics....We visited him in '79 at his parents home for 2wks....If we ever had a boy (2 girls), we were going to name him Dylan (after Bob) Tyler (after Spike)....He & Donna came to upper NYS to our FTN (lol) party in '80....And that's just my memories. He & Rick were good buddies thruout their Navy years, and oh boy, does he have the best stories about Spike (& them!!). I will pass along this very sad news. My heart & prayers are with all his loved ones....Fly high ;) & Rest In Peace Dalvin aka SpikeTyler xoxox ~ Love Ya, Rick & Roberta Jones

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I remember when they were real small and I took them to Bowling Green, Ky. with their mother and grandmother. Their daddy was playing the guitar at the tv studio. It has been a long time since I saw any of the Tyler family. My prayers are with all the family
