“ When I moved up here with my mom and stepdad and David I was 18, and went my senior year here in Alliance. David and I were very close. I watched him grow up and then got married, raised two boys that was his wives as tho they were his own. Then he and Jodi had two of their own. Then they moved and it broke my heart. I am sorry little brother for whatever I didn't do or should have done 😞! I love you,,, always have always will,, and now you have no more pain or suffering, RIP Dave,, (Pam)

“ *My happiest memory with you is all of us dancing, including Steve, at the Sammy Hagar concert at Starwood Amphitheatre years ago. What a great night we had. You gave me a run for the money dancing, you absolutely rocked! We just talked about dancing the other day. I know you are dancing now, without any more pain. I want to thank you for your friendship, laughs, and good times. But most of all, I thank you for helping to create your son, and my son-in-law, Chade, for my daughter and grandsons. I promise to always look after him, love him and be there for him. We love you and will miss you Dave. I'm thankful I got to see and talk to you before you left us. “ Dave you were one of my dear friends way back when. We spent hours and hours cruising and talking. You listened and cared when it seemed like no one did. I think often of all the dancing and fun we used to have. Haven't seen you in 30 years and still think of you often. RIP Dave and to your family I will lift you up in prayers. ”

“ My little brother. I was 7 when he was born and he was MINE. I took care of him and felt a profound sense of loss and grief when our mother left us and took him with her. I never lost that love for him, in spite of his problems. Life isn't fair, but now, I await the resurrection when I will see him and our brother, Clarence, once again. In loving remembrance, baby brother...your big sister.
