“ To Steven, Jeremy, Courtney & Chris: I am still heartbroken over the tragic news that your beloved wife, Dianne, your beautiful precious angel of a mother, no longer walks on Earth. It is still utterly unreal. She was a gleaming gem-- a winner of a Wonder Woman. She was pristine pure, innocent and always there for you, her beloved siblings, her relatives and her treasured friends. Without her happy cheerful presence the sun will never seem as bright again, the flowers never as fragrant, and the joy of sharing some happy news with her will seem marred without seeing that extra sparkle in her blue eyes, hearing the appreciation in her voice, receiving a warm hug from her and basking in her sweet, shy smile. The beauty she saw in people, nature, art, music and her wonderful philosophy will always be with you. She saw beauty in the tiniest things, like the way the sun hit a drop of morning dew on a lonely leaf. She had an impeccable eye for beauty. She was super organized and excelled in EVERYTHING she did. When bad things came her way, she never flinched; she kept her head high and moved through the pain with serenity and impeccable grace. Everything she added her creative touch to, resulted in a magnificent, magical masterpiece. I am sure you will treasure all the wonderful scrapbooks she put together for you with tender loving scrutiny.

There is no way she will ever leave you -- somehow, someday, she will ALWAYS be there with you. Look for her eyes in the beautiful summer sky, hear her voice in the warm caressing zephyr winds, breathe in her fragrance from the flowers she loved and hear her lilting laughter as she soars on high with the birds she loved.

Please accept my deepest, heartfelt empathy over your loss. May God bless you and help you through the bleak empty days ahead without her precious presence.

Love and Lots of Warm Comfort Hugs,

Melissa
