“ Love my Aunt Donna - She was always the Best she could b to everybody she knew . She was well remembered for her days in Columbus Mississippi when she worked at Max's Shoes . Many people went there just so she could wait on them . I know she is having a time in Heaven right now with so many family people and friends - God Bless all of our family that will see her again someday .Love you Aunt Donna so very much <3

Ms. Donna Bush helped me keep an evening shift going at my own pediatric dental office, after she had already worked a full day at Dr. David Barnes office in Shelbyville. She was always very dedicated, dependable, great with patients and other staff members. Thank you very much, Ms. Donna. God bless you in eternity and comfort your dear family still here.
