“ So many memories with you over the years we have been neighbors and became best of friends. I loved you like a sister when you were here on earth and I will forever love you as my sister in Christ and I rest assured I will see you again up there in Gloryland my friend. Rest easy baby Jesus has healed you, now I pray for him to heal all the broken hearts that are still here moarning you. Love you Donna!

“ Aunt Susie was a sweet soul, always welcoming and loving toward everyone. We had so much fun when we worked together at Richie's Restaurant. So many memories of her when I was little. She always smiled. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I know she was a blessing to you.
