“ Saw her on July 22, 1979. Curly yellow hair, white pants, and such a bright smile that did not want to stop. She cursed me with her being my soul mate. I was never again without her again until March 12th, 2018. She poured her life into my soul and made me a better person. Love you Donna, that never stops!

“ Biggest Hugs and much love to you all. I was never blessed to meet this wonderful lady however I am friends with Megan and she is an Amazing woman. With strength, courage & generosity. As well as kindness, compassion and a wonderful sense of humor a lot of which I know she owes to her amazing Mother. May she live on in the hearts and souls of all whose lives she touched.

“ Remember Donna as little girl when we lived in Cedarville NJ. Daughter of Irene as we all called her, one of my favorite sister in laws. Lost touch with Donna's Dad Walt after Irene passed and regrettably lost contact with Donna and Chuck her brother. From what we hear of Donna she became a great Nurse, mother and wife. Prayers for her family and friends as they say goodbye . Rest in peace Donna you are now with your mom, dad and brother. Love Arletta and family .
