“ Ms. Bea was a picture of grace! She was a shining example to younger women of how we should conduct ourselves. Diane brought Bea over to our cabin and we sat on the front porch and just visited in the rocking chairs for hours. Her words were few but very wise. She seemed happy just that those around her were happy. A beautiful soul! I'm sorry we never made it to the "tea room" but she will now be sipping tea with the Master. Rest in peace sweet lady. You will be missed by many!
