“ Doris was my neighbor on Druid Lane in Tullahoma in the early 60's. We lost touch after we moved. I often have thought of her over the years. She was a wonderful, kind, helpful, loving, generous, sincere, and good person all the way around. I know she will rest in peace with our Heavenly Father. My sincere condolences to Dick and the family. Thanks Doris for the wonderful memories. Sincerely Joyce Freeman Young. Odessa Tx and Huntland, Tn.

“ To Me, Doris was a sister who would laugh with me and give me advice. She was a mom and homemaker who kids and husband, my brother were her whole world. She was a seamstress who loved to sew especially kids books and blankets and then give them away to her family, community, and friends. She loved with her whole heart and soul and I will miss her always.
