“ I love and miss u so bad. U was so good to me . U the oldest out of 8 and me the youngest. At times u were like a second mom to me. Always smiling, loving don't if I have seen u angry. U will truly b missed .

“ My heart is broken over the loss of my aunt Dorothy...I don't have the words to adequately express how much she will be missed by all those that loved her, especially for those who called her family. I count myself blessed to have been able to call her family, even more so because of sharing our love of God and His word. 1 Corinthians 8:3 says But if any man loves God, he is known of Him. So God knew her, because she loved Him. In John 17:24 Jesus prayed in the garden of Gethsemane: Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of world. So I know she is with the Savior. What wondrous joy and beauty she must be having, seeing, and hearing!! 1 Corinthians 2:9 tells us: But as it is written, eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither has it entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. Even though I'm am confident and secure in this, it won't ease the ache in my heart of missing her. But I am confident that I will see her again!
