“ I remember staying out at the House in Hazel Crest IL with Christine & E W and sleeping on that feather bed they had. We played in the field next to the house that later became South Suburban Hospital. We use to catch salamanders over there. Both Christine and E W spent many Christmas dinners at our House with Mr & Mrs Santa Claus and other holidays as well. Christine was a sweet soul and will be truly missed. God Speed.. until we are all together at the Great Supper once again.

Love
