

Dwight Thomas Ellington

December 23, 1953 - May 14, 2020

Dwight Thomas Ellington was born December 23, 1953 to Thomas “Tom” Howard Ellington and Virginia Hutcheson Ellington of Tullahoma and passed away in Tullahoma on May 14, 2020 at the age of 66.

Dwight was preceded in death by his father, Tom Ellington, paternal grandparents, Earl and Beulah Ellington of Shelbyville, TN and maternal grandparents, Tom and Katherine Hutcheson of Pikeville, TN.

Dwight is survived by his mother, Virginia; sisters, Gina Bragg (Bingham) and Kimberly Maxon (Michael); nephews, Coleton and Leighton Bragg and nieces, Ginny Jones (Baxter), Skye Maxon and Rivers Brown (Chris).

Dwight graduated from UT at Martin in criminal justice and spent many decades working in his chosen career field. He began his career as a police officer in Tullahoma followed as an investigator for the railroad in Nashville and ended his career working for Fed EX in Memphis.

Dwight was an expert marksman. He had a great love for animals and flowers and was very artistic.

A private graveside service was scheduled at Hillcrest Memorial Gardens in Shelbyville.

“ Very sorry to hear about the passing of Dwight. We worked together at the Tullahoma police department in the early 80s and he was such a good and very intelligent person. It did not surprise me when he moved up to better jobs when he left Tullahoma. My condolence to his family and will keep you in my prayers. Monica Borghese - Oosting

Aunt Gigi, Gina, Kim, and family,

We were so sorry to hear about Dwight's passing. So many happy memories of Christmases spent together with our cousins and the fun of saving bows after presents were opened.

Dwight was a sweetheart. He will be missed.

Love, Kay and family
