“ Hi my name is Ian David Hobbs and this is my grandpa I lost him when I was 13 (that makes me 15 now) and I remember when I was 3-8 I don't remember what age, but every Saturday I would go to his house for biscuits and gravy. When I was sick I always went to this house and eat apple sauce and cottage cheese (I was a weird kid). He my hero and was my favorite person ever. I heard a great quote that reminds me of him. “As iron sharpens iron, dad sharpens son”

“ Ernest Gene Hobbs, his brother J.O. Hobbs and myself were almost like the Three Musketeers years ago. I have many great memories of our experiences growing up together and all the fishing and boating on the Black River. Gene earned and deserved high respect for the life he led and caring for others. I was honored to be his "best man" when he married Sandy Barton (another close friend). My thoughts and prayers go out to the family at this time of sadness, please know I loved Gene and Sandy and love the family. RIP my friend. Virgil (Mack) Sinden, Largo, Florida

“ I will never forget the 1st time you came to our home. You had not been in Tullahoma long. George was having a lot of back pain and could not get relief. Sandy and Gene came over, annointed George with oil and prayed over him. He hasn't had back trouble since. What faithful servants you have always been.
