“ Mother Williams, as always you had a way in contacting me when I wouldn't call in a while & you would send me out a mental message. Yesterday you were on my mind once again heavy. We would talk at least 2 to 3 times in a month, you would encourage me & I you. I will miss our talks, I cried when they told me you had took the wings of a angels. I remember telling you that you were riding on the wings of angel, now you have your own wings now Mother Williams. I won't say goodbye, but I see you later. I will cherish our fund memories & laugh's & tears, time we prayed together. Please watch over me with my mother & grandmothers & I know for sure you're make sure I get the right woman this time as a wife. Now take your rest from labor to reward. Your son Elder William Dean Cooper, Dallas, TEXAS
