“ I'm sorry I didn't get to know your son, Evin. Drexel, I have been praying for you every day for two years since we came to visit the Knights. We were at Margaret Coops and had a barbeque with the family. Clayton is really great with the barbeque, but we sure missed seeing you! When we come again from Wisconsin to visit, I hope we'll be able to get together. Praying for the Lord to give you His peace through all of this. Look to Jesus for your help and comfort. He loves you, Drexel. I love you Too.

“ *I was Evan's 1st and 4th grade teacher and remember him VERY fondly. He was a really smart boy with a very wry sense of humor. I was so very sad to hear of his passing, and wanted to send my condolences to all his family, but especially to his mother and sister, whom I remember well from not only East Lincoln, but Red Lobster, too.
