“ My dear cousin Freida: I only saw you a few times in our long life, but they were great times. I can only give a minute part of comfort in knowing you are with your beloved father who loved you girls so much. We will watch out for Mary and Anna. Rest dear child.

“ I worked with Freida at Bojangle's. She was one of the funniest people I ever met. It breaks my heart to know she's gone. We just recently started working together again at Logan's. She always had me smiling and laughing. There's just not many people like her. The last time I saw her I told her how much I missed her. I hadn't seen her in awhile. I hope she's flying high with all the angels and making god laugh with her amazing stories. She will be missed so so much. Love ya gal. 💕💕
