“ I am thankful that I got to meet Gary as he called Toni about two months ago and said let's get together for lunch. So, we meet Gary and Judy about half way and had a nice lunch at Cracker Barrel.

As it says in the Marine Corps hymn, "If the Army or the navy ever look upon Heaven's shore, they will find the street's are guarded by United States Marines!" I am sure that in addition to his other duties in Heaven, Gary is at his post observing everything within sight and hearing. Semper Fidelius Gary.

TO

I share this loss of Gary so much with you, our siblings, and all the ones he loved and loved him We had and still have a a brother of heart and laughter to everything, Do not ever forget that! He was always so positive. He is still knowing and feels our love for him. Brother Whrays' words were so touching in the way he shared Gary's new life with God. We cannot even know at this time, but only hope that we too will someday experience that new life. Remember those words if you can. Just a personal sharing - There are 2 "great" memories Gary taught me personally as a child. #1 - how to fight like a marine! (Sorry Navy) . I did did get spankings for bending the arm, wrist behind the back, going for the the neck with the knuckle "for defense and protect tactics" (like he taught me, big brother to little sister - straight out of the marines) well, I used them on him, self defense or practicing? I got spankings for doing so! #2 Laugh! Most, most, important!!! Laughter, the kind of laughter that really gives you a since of well being, no matter what you are, or he was feeling at the time - it's was good, a good feeling. It would give you a feeling of life and love. He was always so full of jovial laughter. and it came truly deep out of his heart. Occasionally, perhaps. "some laughter of being just devious because? - he was a great brother" No matter what! In sickness or health - he laughed to make things better, always, somehow, all better and it was. God Bless him and all he loved, always remember - "Don't cry for sorrow - cry for what he is, what he believed in, what he loved , and we will always remember him for his love.... And for all those that really know him - - He was always great for surprises, to "just show up", especially (and not a knock) on your front door. Especially to visit Mom and Dad. Well - Guess what? He is doing it again!! Showing up again, no knocks, no warning. He is brother "just being Gary" - He will have a surprise this time like no other - opened armed with God at the gates and a "bonus" a joy of eternity with Mom and Dad too, and all of the loved ones that beat him to the doors of heaven first!! What a joyous surprise for him. We all love you - with love - your "little sister" Toni
