“ Elsie , Ms Mary, Gaynell & The Jackson family...

*We were devastated to hear the passing of Kill (Gary) ..
He was one of our closest friends . It's so hard to write condolences for the second time this year.*

We lost someone that was very close to us at the beginning of January

now we lost Kill. I'm going to try to get right to the point. Kill (Gary) was a very unique person with colorful characteristics. Lol.... He was outspoken and didn't bite his tongue that's where the colorful part comes into play (lol) but.... all fun and games to the side....

It's very rare to meet someone in your lifetime that believes in everything that you're doing across-the-board.

That's what made Kill unique!!

He believed in everything Anthony & I were doing..

You don't find people like that nowadays that are 100% Real and non-judge mental.

Gary (Kill)was somethang else lol

Last but not lease

Thank you God... for making Kill (Gary) just the way he was CRAZY!!

To The Jackson Family....

Thank you for sharing Kill .. He will be deeply Missed!!

God bless

“ I met Gary AKA Will Kill in Seattle when I was 15 years old. I had a CB setup at my grandmother's house and I was learning radio then. He taught me a whole lot about the hobby in a short time. He later became like a big brother to me. Often pushing me to explore my potential & when I started building amps, he was the first to own one.

His loyalty was undeniable. When my Father passed in 2003, Gary was outside waiting at the funeral home before the doors opened for the service. We talked about family every time we spoke to one another. Everyone knows how much he loved his beautiful family. When his Father passed we talk about the last thing his Father said to him and without sharing a private conversation.... it made Gary an even better man. I lost my Mother on January 2nd and again Gary called immediately. He talked me through those tough initial days and the last thing he gave me was a sympathy card with some kind words and simply signed.... Will Kill.

I miss you Big Brotha and I will never forget you....
