“ I just received this notice from an old army buddy.
I served with George in Okinawa and Fort Devens Massachusetts.
My wife and I were friends with George & Dawn and our kids were friends. George was a great person who took pride in serving his country. May he rest in peace.

“ George was my shift supervisor when I first arrived at Torrii Station Okinawa in 1974. Although I have not seen George in many years, I have not nor will I ever forget those early days and working with George. I am sorry to hear of his passing but maybe I'll see him again on the other side. God blessings to his family.

“ George was an incredible man. A faithful and devoted family man, friend, and soldier. I am blessed to have had him in my life as my father in-law. He was a living example that you can be a selfless, dedicated, kind, honest and strong person. His actions were rooted in his faith and his love for his family and country. The impact of the example he set is everlasting and so is his memory. I miss him.

“ Hey, I'm Devyn. I'm his granddaughter . He was super cool and fun to be around and he always filled me with joy. he never failed to make me laugh. I just wish i had spent more time with him. He used to buy black jelly beans and share them with us on Easter. He used to help me hide while playing hide and seek with my siblings. He was honestly the best granddad ever. I come to this page often and I wanted to write another message. He taught me so much and was always nice to others as well. I miss him like crazy. <3

A great man. When I was stationed at Corry Station, he took me in during the Christmas of 1987. I felt like part of the family. My prayers for comfort. He was truly a soldier's soldier!

“ I have been sitting here each morning drinking coffee thinking about what to say about the big thing that you did for me and all I can remember is the little silly things we did but the one big thing you did do is you loved me for who I was broken and all you never judge me for who I was and welcomed me into the family and allowed me the greatest gift of all to love your son and to take him as my own. Thank you so much Dad. I love you
