“ I first met Glenn in Nashville through a really good friend of mine from Shelbyville, who is also gone, Tommy Shelton. Later on, we played ball against one another in a Nash. summer league. Stayed friends with Glenn through the years, and always bought all our appliances from Glenn at H.H. Gregg. As our families grew, and we took on those responsibilities, we didn't see one another for many years. One day I was pleasantly surprised when my sister Patti Todd told me she had a date with an old friend of mine, Glenn Ford. Wow. Well, their relationship blossomed, and Glenn and Patti and my wife, Mickey and I were going out to eat and once again becoming good friends. In April we all went to Gatlinburg and had a wonderful vacation in the mountains. Glenn will be missed by me and my family. God Bless You, old buddy!..... Terry Bodiford
