“ I was Hank's nurse at Morning Pointe. When I first went to work there, Hank tried to be tough with me but he found out I was just as tough and I wasn't going to let him get away with anything. We formed a repoire with one another as well as a friendship. I always told him he was going to get better and we were going dancing. (Well, he got better without me and is dancing with the angels!) I cherish the time I had with him and I will miss him dearly. Many prayers and much love for your family.
