“ I have so many fond memories of my eldest brother. Leroy was so loving and kind. (A gentle soul) He loved and cared about his family so much. He took after his mom and stepdad, as he was a very hard worker. He actually called himself a clever lil hustler. Indeed he was..... Leroy was a child of God. He loved the Lord and if he ever missed church which he rarely did, then you knew something was wrong. A compassionate heart and a giver of his time as he loved to visit with the sick and always checking up on his family. Another fond memory of my brother is that we never left each other without saying I love you! He had a heart of gold, and would always come to see me and my daughter off to Houston, no matter what time in the morning it was nor how late. He was very proud of me but oh I was so proud of him, the man(CHRISTIAN), and brother he was to me. There is nothing that can take away the pain in my heart nor the tears in my eyes but I do have comfort knowing that Leroy, you are no longer in pain and you are wrapped up in the loving arms of Jesus. You will forever be and live in our heart!!!! I LOVE YOU beyond this lifetime!!!! 🕊️🙏🏻✝️🌟 #restinpower #restinheaven #seeyouwhenigetthere
