“ Janice loved shrimp...so do I, but I am a city girl from up north...I always had my shrimp from the grocery or a restaurant. We had a fund raiser for Toys for Tots, called Cajun Bingo...So I decide to do a big pot of jumbalaya, I had never made it but Janice was helpin me lol She told me she had like 20 pounds of shrimp in her freezer and would bring it in the next mornin...I was thrilled, and of course said yes! The next day she brings me 2 big freezer bags full of huge gray bugs!! I swear I was freakin out Imao She got to laughin so hard she couldn't even talk to tell me they were fresh shrimp. When she could finally talk through the tears she starts tellin me how I gotta crack em and peel em and take veins out of em, well the more she told me, the more horrified I was...my face musta been hilarious cause she couldn't stop laughin at me, I don't know how we ever got them shrimp cleaned for me gaggin and her laughin but we finally did and it turned out awesome haha God we had so much fun that day...I guess ya had to be there, but if you know both of us, I'm sure you can imagine us makin all that fuss in the kitchen lol
