“ He may have not been my real Uncle, but he will always be referred to as Uncle J. He was the most caring person anyone would ever know. We had the most amazing memories while doing my tattoos, and he will forever be apart of me. I could talk to him about anything. I will miss him everyday and remember him in the biggest moments of my life. I know he is always with me and is proud of me. I will always remember every time we talked about tattoos and how he grew my passion for tattoos. He was my biggest supporter. I love you Uncle Jason now and forever.
