“ Your mom was a dear friend and a wonderful neighbor, she has led an interesting life. She always made us a part of her beautiful family also. Pleased for all our memories of your mom as they are filled with good, wonderful, fun times together. How we would enjoy sharing with her family some great stories of your mom. She was special in so many ways. With our deepest sympathy and with hugs from us to all Jean's family. We care! Peg and Tony

“ Dear Popp family,

Bob and I are sorry to hear of your mom's passing. We'll always remember the good times we had with both her and your dad. Our bridge get-togethers were especially fun, and the food at our 3-table bridge evenings were delicious!!! You will be in our prayers.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. I knew Jean at Sundance where we enjoyed parties, golf and going out to eat. Your parents were wonderful people who loved their family and life itself. Bob was a real Gentleman and Jean was a real Lady!! I'm sure she is happy now to be with her Bob again. You all were fortunate to have such beautiful parents. Thank you Barb for letting us know she died. I hope she did not suffer.
