“ I have worked with Jeff for year n half. Was his group leader over the mixing off and on for a year. He was a great teacher and shown me around the mixing room and how I could become a better group leader. He was a great friend and always there when I needed someone to talk to or needed good advice. We would stand there for hours in the mixing room or outside on break and talk about his life his family his new granddaughter and how proud he was to be where he was at in life. He was a really good man and I cannot believe that he is gone. As I read that he had grown some wings I cried and was thinking and hoping that it was somebody that I did not know because I didn't want it to be a good friend of mine. I am going to miss walking into work and seeing his smiling face and him walking up to me and giving me a hug and asking how my day was and not to let people drag me down or let them hurt my feelings. I don't have my friend there to give me advice and just talk about things and life in general. I hate to hear that you are no longer with us but you are in a better place now. You have gained a set of wings And now you can watch over your family and your friends in a better place. R.I.P JEFF EDDY. I will miss you dear friend

“ Jeff, I met you 7 yrs ago when me and Stefanie first became friends. There isn't anything bad I could say about you. Or that anyone could say really. You treated my best friend like a queen. And you were definitely her king. Keri, Katrina, Isaac, Emily, Dj, and Avery lived you to no end. You were there daddy and Avery's paw paw. God got you too soon. Stefanie misses you so much but I'm sure you can see how much she does. I've never seen her so hurt or so lost. But I promise I do everything I can for her. You were one of the sweetest, calmest, well mannered, kind, and definitely funny!!!! I'll never forget our memories together. And I'll never forget you. Me, Stefanie, Avery, Emily, Isaac, Keri, Katrina, and Dj Love you so much.

“ My memories of Jeff was when he was just a little boy. I am his Aunt Ivy and he and his sister Cindy spent a week with our family one summer. He was a beautiful little boy but he sure hated baths as most kids do. I am so sorry we lost contact with Jeff. He will be missed by his family. RIP Jeffrey Lynn, we love you. When my husband and I first started dating Jeff told him if he broke my heart he would kick his butt..He always there for me when I was down or when I had something going on he was here by my side telling me it would get better.
