“ I'm very sad to hear of Uncle Jerry's passing. I will miss his phone calls when he would share all the goings on of the family and life in Manchester. I had a wonderful visit with Jerry and Mavis when my sister Pamela and I came to Tennessee a couple of years ago. I had an opportunity to visit with Jerry, Mavis, Cynthia and April as well as Miss Jingles. I spoke with him just after Mavis passed away although he was heartbroken. I always felt Jerry and Mavis had the most marvelous marriage, and they really liked each other too. I send my love to the family and I will keep Jerry, Mavis and April in my prayers.

“ I always liked to visit with Jerry and Mavis. My husband used to sit out in the recording studio Jerry built and they would talk for hours. The last I was there the last thing Jerry said to me I was leaving was "I miss Al" and I told him I do to. He was a sweet man and he and Mavis were a perfect couple. I love you guys and will miss you.

“ Uncle Jerry was a inspiration to me as I was growing up. It was always enjoyable to go over to see him, Mavis, April, and Cynthia. I'll never forget how their little Boston's would never let me leave the house. I enjoyed listening to the band and traveling to a few of their local concerts. I really wish I could have made it home in time to see you, busy rest assured we will see each other again and we can catch up on all that's happened over all these years. Get some rest
