“ I was shocked to learn of Jerry's passing. I loved him and Sharon. Just last Friday July 18) Jerry was in good spirits and I commented that he seemed to be feeling good. He replied that he had made a decision to have a more positive attitude. That really touched me. I will miss him. He was a mentor to me.

And we know that all things work together for the good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose.

Romans 9:28

In whom, also we have obtained an inheritance, being Predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will.

Ephesians 1:11

For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the lord that has mercy on thee.

Isaiah 54:10

I said all that to say this, I am Darrell White, and I went to Wheel School with Jerry. I got to know him, even with us being young boys, well enough to say he was my friend. I hate that us living our own lives; time just got away and I lost touch with him. I realize he had a blessed life from what I read in the obituarie. I am really sorry that the loss has been felt by so many; his loving family and the multitude of friends he aquired over the span of his life, but, I know keeping faith in the LORD will ensure that things will work, and life will go on. Those of us that knew him and loved him, like a brother, in my case, will miss him. Please know that my wife and I will be praying that peace will come to you.

With Love in Christ
