“ I pray that our family can find some sort of peace through this time of great sorrow. I believe Uncle Jerry had a pretty large welcoming committee at the Pearly Gates. I know that God probably has his hands full with all the Pattillo's up there doing what they do best playing jokes and pranks on anyone and everyone. I know that he is in a better place where he is young again and free of stress and he is where he can watch over his family the best way possible to keep them safe. Soar high in the clouds. R.I.P. Uncle Jerry, I love and miss you.

With Deepest Sympathies,
Your niece
Julie Pattillo
