“ Joe, Joyce and I grew up together in the Detroit area. Our families were not close but I used to get on the bus with my Grandmother-- Joe and Joyce's aunt--sometimes on Saturdays and go to spend a weekend with the Warrens. We did silly kid things but had a good time together. Years passed as my family and I move from state to state but my wife and I saw Joe and Joyce and finally met Peggy at a Rogers family reunion a few years back. It was great seeing them.
I am sorry he has passed but happy that he is in a better place and at peace.

Joyce and Peggy, love and condolences to you. Give each other a hug for us and if it were not for a lingering health problem we would be there.

“ Joe was a good man and took a chance on me when I was just entering the workforce. He guided me and taught me many things about machining and life. I'll always remember him as a mentor and friend. I send prayers of peace, comfort and healing to the family.
