“ Joey was such a blessing to me. We had spent most of our lives just waiting on each other. He was my soulmate and best friend. I will never stop loving him. I praise the Lord that he got saved last year so now when it's my time to go I can run into his waiting arms. I will forever miss you and you have my heart, Joey. I love you beyond the stars. Praying for his family and friends and kids. I love you all. I'm here if you need anything. Rest in Heaven Joey and I will see you next time. Love always and forever,
Your fiance, Angela Williamson

“ Very sad to hear of Joey's passing. My condolences to his mother and family. I have many fond and lasting memories of him. He was a very outgoing, talented and good hearted man. I hope wherever he is, he is jamming with Johnny Cash, Merle Haggard, Charlie Daniels & Hank Williams showing them how good he is in the guitar. Rest In Peace old friend. I'll get up with you, bubba.

He told me many stories of times with you. "QUIET" he would say out of no where and just start laughing. I miss his laugh and being held in his arms. I am so short and he was so tall I fit perfectly under his chin. I am heartbroken and lost without him. I so look forward to seeing him again.
