“ My brother Johnny Hinkle was a jack of all trades. He learned to farm at a very young age. He also was a construction worker, and let me tell you that he was rebuilding transmissions and motors in his own cars as a young teenager. He loved motorcycles, too. He traveled the whole United States, Canada and Mexico in his trucking years. He was employee of the year for at least 10 years for Nationwide. He was my brother and my friend and I will love and respect him always. Love you more than you will ever know!!! Little sis

“ My brother was a good man and would give the shirt off his back, to help anyone. He was not only my brother but he was my friend! I love you so much Johnny and we will miss you so very much!! I know you are with Jesus, walking the streets of gold, completely healed, watching over us. I will see you again and we will have a big celebration with all our loved ones who have passed before us. God bless your soul Johnny. Not a day goes by, that I think about you. I will miss our phone calls but now you can rest and there will be no more suffering!! Rest in peace big brother.
