“ I thought that I had written yesterday..but cant find it..that is a great picture of my dear, old friend..life gets busy and I have missed him and Carol for so many years..he always made me laugh and feel important and interesting and loved...he had that way about him. I truly have never met person easier and more welcoming to be around. My thoughts and prayers go out to all his friends and family....I will see you again one day sweet friend, until then...please keep your loved ones strong and safe. I send love to all.

“ I see from the picture here that Mike's handsome appearance and lovely smile never changed. Back in the day Carol and Mike and I were as thick as thieves for many years. Mike always made me laugh and always made me feel loved, welcome,important,interesting and happy. My heart is broken to know that I will never see him again on this earth,as it had already been too long. A sweeter, more easy going and caring man never walked this earth. Send everyone smiles and strength from heaven Mike. I will see you again my friend. All my love and prayers to all Lynn

“ I have so many memories of Mike starting at age eight. We grew up across the street from each other and he was one of my brothers very best friends. We even took a trip together to see Kerry when he was at Mercer University. He and Kerry came over to my apartment all the time. He said I made the best spaghetti in the world. I'll always remember how much fun we had and his great big smile. We shared a love of history. He was like another brother and I'll always have my great memories of Mike. So sorry Carole, Jean and Lynne.

I knew Mike very well at UT Martin and a bit later when he worked at the TN State Library and Archives in Nashville. He was a great guy, quick to smile or laugh.
